Letter from the President

By LTG (Ret.) Ron Watts

Greetings to all Society members and your families!

We are beginning the Society's second century of service to our members and the 1st Infantry Division. As always, there are challenges ahead. We face a declining membership as our Vietnam and Cold War era veterans age, and we have yet to attract in any numbers the BRO veterans who have served our Division and Nation since 9-11. Our Executive Director, Phyllis Fitzgerald has great ideas to address these challenges.

The Society staff reorganization is complete. We now operate with an Executive Director, Secretary – Treasurer, and a part-time employee. We will be unable to do some previous tasks. However, we have prioritized to take care of members, manage the Reunion, and support our Division. We welcome your ideas.

I encourage you to support our initiative to increase the number of Society Chapters. See details in an article in this BHS.

Our New Orleans Reunion Theme is "Division Return from Vietnam – 50 Years Revisited!" It has been 50 years since the BRO shielded its colors in Vietnam, and returned to Fort Riley. Our speakers will offer insights on events that occurred as the Division returned to Fort Riley. A visit to the WW II Museum, alone is worth the trip. Please come, bring your friends, and enjoy a great Reunion. (Details in this BHS.)

We continue our efforts to add the 631 names, and their units of BRO soldiers lost in post 9-11 operations (Afghanistan: 192; Iraq: 439). The US House of Representatives passed a resolution, named, "First Act" authorizing revisions to the Monument base and addition of the names. Our "First Act" is included in a National Park Bill. There is no opposition to the resolution. Senator Moran is sponsoring and working to get the resolution passed in the Senate. We are not optimistic that this Bill will pass the Senate before fall elections. We cannot do any work on the monument until the bill is approved in the Senate, and then by the National Park Service. We still estimate the need for ~ $400,000 to make the necessary modifications. As of 31 December 2019, we had $245,000 on hand. Your continued support of donations is appreciated.

The Society gave, on your behalf, twenty $50 gift certificates valid at the Fort Riley Commissary to soldiers that needed assistance during the Christmas 2019 season.

I look forward to working with you as we continue to support Society objectives. Also, looking forward to visiting with you at our New Orleans Reunion this August!

Commissary Gift Cards During the 2019 Holiday Season

Executive Director Phyllis Fitzgerald presented Chaplain (LTC) David Meyer (Chief, Religious Support Operations, Fort Riley, Kansas Religious Support Office) with 20 commissary gift cards for 1ID soldiers and their families to help them purchase a holiday meal. This presentation of gift cards was made possible thanks to the generous donations of our members to the Big Red One (BRO) support fund. We thank each of you for your continued support of the Society and for our active-duty soldiers, their families and Veterans. ▀

Letter from the Executive Director

By Phyllis Fitzgerald

Greetings and Happy 2020!

Time sure flies when you are working hard or having fun. I am excited to be your new Executive Director. As a Retired Soldier and a Big Red One Desert Storm Combat Veteran I am extremely proud to have served in the most storied Army Division, the 1st Infantry Division.

We have been working hard at Society Headquarters on Fort Riley, Kansas for our members. I would like to share some of the projects we have been working on.

The first project I would like to discuss is the building of memberships. We have over 10,000 members with over 75% being lifetime members. To increase our membership, we have started setting up local chapters. Emails have been sent out to individuals in multiple states to see if there is interest in the areas where members reside. We have heard back from many members in quite a few states that are interested in a local chapter. The biggest issue though is getting someone in the area to take the lead. We have been successful in setting up three local chapters in Ohio, Indiana and in Junction City. All the details about these chapters can be found on our website www.1stid.org

With the forming of local chapters, we hope to build membership. The Society has always been a place where our members can connect with one another and stay in contact with the 1st Infantry Division. We all have a responsibility to ensure that the generations that follow us continue the legacy of this great division and being a member is one way.

We have also been engaging the local community businesses and sharing the story of the Society and the Big Red One and its importance to our Soldiers, Veterans and their families. We encourage them to consider joining the Society as a business partner or corporate sponsor. Since the Society is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization we need members, business partners and corporate sponsors. The need for new membership and partners is vital to carrying on the legacy and honoring our fallen of the 1st Infantry Division. New members can be friends, family, neighbors, Veteran's, Soldiers or businesses. We welcome everyone. Please support our sponsors; you can find a list on our website and in the Bridgehead Sentinel.)

You will also note when viewing our website, we have been updating it with informing information for our members and the public.

Another project we have been working on is updating our membership database and we can use your assistance. If you move, change phone numbers or email address, please notify us so that we can update your profile. This helps to ensure that you receive correspondence from us.

Beginning with Spring 2020 edition, the Bridgehead Sentinel magazine will be sent electronically. This change is more cost effective and timely. If you do not have email and prefer a hard copy let us know and a copy will be mailed to you.

This year the annual reunion will be in New Orleans. We have events planned for the WWII Museum, city tours and steamboat tours, plus you will have the opportunity to venture out on your own. (See details in this BHS). Reunions are a great time to visit with old friends, make some new friends and share Big Red One stories with each other. I look forward to seeing you in the Big Easy. ♥

Letter From the CG Major General John S. Kolasheski

My name is John Kolasheski and I am a Big Red One Soldier, proudly serving in America's First and Most Historic Division. While it has only been a few months since my last update, your Division has remained hard at work generating combat readiness at home and supporting our Combatant Commanders abroad.

This fall, we were proud to welcome home our 1st Armored Brigade Combat Team, 1st Combat Aviation Brigade, and 1st Sustainment Brigade from their deployments. 1st Armored Brigade Combat Team and a majority of the Combat Aviation Brigade returned from Europe after serving side-by-side with some of our closest Allies and Partners in support of US Army Europe's Operation Atlantic Resolve. The Sustainment Brigade Headquarters and 1-1 Attack Reconnaissance Battalion (Apache Helicopters) served with distinction in the Middle East in support of Operations Freedom's Sentinel and Operation Inherent Resolve. We are glad to have everyone back at home safely and are very proud of all of their accomplishments.

As units return home, others go forward to continue the proud legacy of our Division. The 2nd Armored Brigade Combat Team is in the midst of deploying troops and equipment to the Korean Peninsula. For the next nine months, our Troopers will train alongside our 8th Army and United States Forces Korea teammates. They are a well-trained and well-led fighting force who is prepared to answer if our great Nation calls. Additionally, our Gray Eagle Company (Fox Company), which flies unmanned aerial systems, is currently deployed to Afghanistan.

During this time of transition, the 11D Forward European Command Post continues to support Operation Atlantic Resolve from Poland. The previous forward commander, Colonel Phil Brooks (Deputy Commanding Officer-Maneuver), returned home to Fort Riley just in time for Christmas. Colonel Tom O'Connor (Deputy Commanding Officer-Support) assumed command of 11D Forward and is ready to lead members of our Division staff and the 1st Cavalry Division through an upcoming series of challenging multi-national training exercises. After supporting Operation Atlantic Resolve for the past two years, we will transfer authority of our European mission to the 1st Cavalry Division in June 2020.

At the end of January, our Division bid farewell to an exceptional Non-Commissioned Officer (who some of you may know) — Division Command Sergeant Major Craig Bishop. Command Sergeant Major Bishop's contributions to our Division are too numerous to list and the Bishop family will always be proud members of the Big Red One. While we said goodbye to one great Army leader and family, we are privileged to welcome another, Command

Sergeant Major Ray Harris. Command Sergeant Major Harris is no stranger to the 1st Infantry Division, having served with the Big Red One previously on multiple occasions, including 19 months in combat. Command Sergeant Major Harris, his wife Leah, and children Jaydon and Riley, join us from Fort Hood, Texas. While Command Sergeant Major Bishop left some big shoes to fill, I know that Command Sergeant Major Harris is up for the challenge.

In closing, I would like to reiterate my gratitude for all this organization, as well as many others, do for our Division. Rest assured—our Soldiers, civilians, and families remain dedicated to protecting the legacy founded, and upheld for generations by all the proud veterans of the Big Red One. You are and will forever remain a key piece of our history.

Letters Home: A Tribute to the 1st Infantry Division

by Dale Ray Andrews
Medic, 1st-ID/Vietnam 1967–68

They call us ground pounders, grunts, bullet-catchers, epithet the bloody first but we're warriors, deployed into battle zones on unforgivable terrain, to keep you free

Digging a trench or perimeter bunker on foreign dirt, hard as rocks, slimy-mud or scalding sand, tirelessly we dig-in filling bags by pick and shovel or by strong aching hands

With mortars raining, rifles blazing, grenades blasting we fight long and hard, the enemy keeps coming from afar, victorious, we find rare moments of battle rest, when we wearily write a few words in a letter home

Days on end we hump, carrying sweat soaked note paper in our soiled fatigue pocket, often stained with our brothers' blood, until a pause in fighting brings relief time to write love and lies

*Often untruths, that we'll stay alive and be alright we scribble our words to loved ones back home, hoping our letter finds its way to them, someday,
but often not, or buddy delivered posthumously*

We will be the first to give our life to keep you free, to save democracy, into battle we headlong run to secure our homeland, and we never forget the fallen we're the proud American soldiers of the Big Red One ■

About the Author

I entered the Army in July 1967, and went to basic training at Ft. Campbell, KY (eight weeks). Next was medical aid-man AIT at Ft. Sam Houston, TX (14 weeks).

Then, I was deployed individually (as we were back then) to Vietnam. I arrived in Long Bien in December 1967 and was quickly assigned and transported to the 1st ID in Di An, Vietnam. I was assigned as a field medic to the 1st Battalion, 7th Artillery. I spent the next 12 months as a combat medic. Our operations were in the Iron Triangle, War Zone C and D. I received a bronze star with "V" Device for one of the battles. This year also marks the 52nd Anniversary of the death of our beloved 1LT William L. Rogers.

I am proud of all the men and women of the Big Red One and it was an honor to serve. After my tour in Vietnam I went to Army Medical Laboratory Technologist Training and changed my MOS. In 1970, I was honorably discharged and attended college on the GI Bill. ■

Forming Local Society of the First Infantry Division Chapters

Some time ago there were local chapters that were formed in different communities and as time has progressed those chapters have folded.

One of the efforts the Society is doing is attempting to get interest in forming local chapters in the areas that our members live. It is a great way for our veterans and soldiers to connect with one another and stay connected. The question though is "How do we get these soldiers and veterans to belong to local chapters? There are a couple of ways, any member can start a chapter in their community; the Society can and has sent out emails to veterans in various states via our database, to see if there is interest in the formation of a local chapter. We have had over a dozen members respond back with the interest of forming a chapter. So far, we have three (3) chapters that have or are forming in Kansas, Indiana and Ohio. Below is the Point of Contact for these chapters and you can also find more information on chapters that are forming on our webpage at:

The local chapter can be formal or informal. If a formal chapter is stood up, we have some documentation that we can send to you (constitution and bylaws). The local chapter will decide the type of chapter to be formed and how often to meet and any goals or projects that as a chapter you might want to do. The formation of chapters can be open to any veteran, family, friend, business or associate. The only stipulation is the members must be a member of the Society of the First Infantry Division. We will include information about your local chapter on our web site.

In Junction City, Kansas our chapter has been meeting monthly, with attendance averaging 10 to 12. Our chapter is informal, and we are in the process of adding more members. Since the gates of Fort Riley lead into our community and many of our community members are veterans, we have an opportunity to have many members, but it takes time and effort. We should all try our best to get more members to join and help us to carry on the legacy of the Big Red One. The forming of local chapters is one way; meet, share our stories and encourage others to join and be a part of the 1st Infantry Division legacy. If you

NEWS RELEASE

Famous "Big Red One" to Hold 2020 Reunion in New Orleans, Louisiana

New Orleans, LA— Veterans of the Army's renowned 1st Infantry Division, the Big Red One, will hold their 101st Annual Reunion in New Orleans, Louisiana, from August 12-16, 2020 at the Astor Crowne Plaza Hotel. The reunion will be conducted by the Big Red One veterans' organization, the Society of the First Infantry Division in Fort Riley, KS.

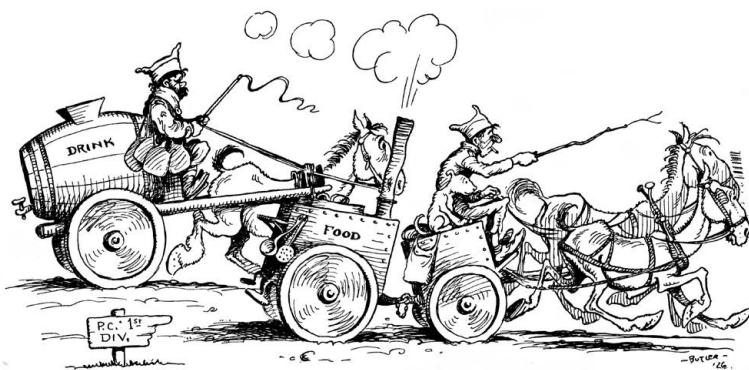

The 1st Infantry Division is the Army's oldest and arguably most famous division. It served with great distinction in World War I, World War II, Vietnam and the first Gulf War (Desert Storm) as well as in Germany and the U.S. during the Cold War. Elements of the 1st Infantry Division have participated extensively in Operation Iraqi Freedom in Iraq and also in Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan. The 1st Infantry Division has also trained thousands of Military Transition Team members and deployed them to Iraq and Afghanistan.

Over 500 Big Red One veterans and their guests attended the 100th Annual Reunion held in Baltimore, MD. The Commanding General of the Division and a solid contingent of leaders and young soldiers serving in the Division added a fresh and exciting dimension to the reunion.

Everyone who ever served in the First Infantry Division or any unit attached to it is cordially invited to attend the reunion.

101st Annual Reunion - New Orleans, Louisiana 12-16 August 2020

The theme for this year's reunion is "The 50th anniversary of 1970," the year the 1st ID came home from Vietnam. This will be a sensational reunion with tours and events that will appeal to everyone. The premier tour this year will take us to the National World War II Museum in the heart of New Orleans where you will discover the most impactful event of the 20th century and the legacy of the greatest generation in thought-provoking exhibits.

A timeless city with a unique way of life, New Orleans is a journey and a celebration. Steeped in European traditions and Caribbean influences, the Big Easy calls curious minds to sweet sounds and savory aromas fueled by three hundred years of history. From the moment you arrive New Orleans will beckon your ears, allure your eyes and enchant your heart. Indulge your senses and explore. We invite you to follow the scent of gumbo floating out the kitchen window, foster a path that leads to the sounds of drums and a Blues guitar, create the route that welcomes you to a historic mansion or a hidden courtyard... We believe that our lagniappe – a little something extra – will stay with you, calling you back to discover the mystery behind our magical city. New Orleans is and will always be a picturesque metropolitan, a culturally rich haven and an authentic experience.

If New Orleans history was translated to the silver screen, it would be a blockbuster – a story dripping with drama, romance, piracy, intrigue, tragedy and inspiration. New Orleans is volleyed between the French and the Spanish from the late 17th century until the United States bought Louisiana for pennies an acre in 1803. New Orleans is forever shaped by its European heritage. The city's broad timeline offers a portal into what we see, taste, hear and experience in 21st century New Orleans.

Often called the Crown Jewel of New Orleans, the French Quarter is one of New Orleans most historic neighborhoods, but you'll find plenty of new mixed in with the old. There's a reimaged French Market, modern boutiques and artisan cocktails mix with beloved antique stores and old restaurants.

We have a full schedule planned this year. Please read through these next two pages carefully and make sure to register for all of the events that are of interest to you and your guests. There is limited seating for many of these tours, so register now so that you are not disappointed later!

When not on one of the planned tours, you will have the opportunity to go on your own walking tours of the French Quarter which occupies a six by thirteen block area of land. You are within walking distance of the Mississippi River and there are many places to eat, shop, photo opportunities and museums to tour.

The most important reason for attending is to see all your old buddies and to meet and make new friends. Please join us for the Welcome Party to enjoy some entertainment and socialize. It is free and everyone is WELCOME!! This year we will have the Jazz Band "The Flavors of New Orleans" for your enjoyment.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone. We hope you will join us. ■

Desert Redleg Artillery Warfare in the First Gulf War

By COL L. Scott Lingamfelter
Kentucky Press

Available at kentuckypress.com or Amazon.com ▼

Veteran and former "Redleg" of the 1st Infantry Division Artillery, COL L. Scott Lingamfelter recounts the logistical and strategic decisions that led to a coalition victory in the first Gulf War.

Drawing on original battle maps, official reports, and his and his comrades' personal journals, Lingamfelter describes the experience of the war through a soldier's eyes and attempts to answer the question of whether the United States "got the job done" in its first sustained Middle Eastern conflict.

COL Lingamfelter, USA (Ret.), began his 28-year military career as a field artilleryman, quickly moving up the ranks to Colonel. He served in the Virginia House of Delegates from 2002 to 2018. His work has been published in the Richmond Times-Dispatch and the Washington Times. ▼

VIETNAM

🌐 Hi,

I am trying to locate a lieutenant named Norgren who was my Company Commander at Ft. Dix in 1962. Subsequently, I ran into him in late 1964 in Berlin. At that time, I was assigned to the 78th ASA SOU and I came across him in Grunwald, as part of Operation Long Thrust. The 1st ID was cycling large units into West Germany, then to Berlin and then home. I don't know what the odds are of such a chance meeting are, but they are slim. Any information would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks,

Ken Orzel

🌐 Hi,

I am trying to find more info about Tihomir Momirovic, who served in Vietnam with 1st Infantry Division.

Any information would be appreciated.

Kind regards,

BRO SUPPORT FUND

THE BRO SUPPORT FUND

The Big Red One Support Fund is the Society's own fund that provides assistance to serving 1st Infantry Division soldiers and their families in non-emergency situations—our 1st Infantry Division Foundation's McCormick Grants program handles the emergencies. As the Global War on Terror has progressed, the number of needs and assistance programs have multiplied dramatically, yet there are often needs that fall between the cracks. These situations are the reason the BRO Support Fund exists.

If you would like to donate to the BRO Support Fund, please use the coupon below or the membership renewal application on page 18 to do so. With your generosity, help and support, the Big Red One continues to take care of its own!

CENTURY CLUB

FIRST DIVISION MUSEUM AT CANTIGNY

MCCORMICK RESEARCH CENTER

Update from the Executive Director

By Krewasky A. Salter

It is my pleasure to once again communicate with the soldiers, civilians, supporters and indeed family members of the Big Red One as I enter my first full calendar year on the job as executive director of the First Division Museum.

Allow me to begin this note by reiterating our new mission and vision statements, and tagline. Our mission is: “to interpret Military History Through the Lens of the U.S. Army’s 1st Infantry Division—also known as the Big Red One (BRO). We present and promote U.S. Military History with an added aspect of preserving BRO artifacts, archival materials and history.”

Our new vision statement is: “to be the best military history museum in the United States by dedicating ourselves to interpreting an inclusive BRO story reflecting the diversity of our nation’s military—past and present—thereby attracting and educating larger audiences.”

Our mission and vision statements are each synopsisized in our new tagline: “Interpreting Military History Through the Lens of the U.S. Army’s 1st Infantry Division.”

In line with the above, we’ve added several interpretations to our “First In War” gallery and will add more as 2020 progresses. For example:

- We updated the D-Day mural by adding soldier images that represent specific moments on Omaha Beach on June 6 and June 7, 1944 (see photos.)

- We added “Women in World War II” to the North Africa section. Our visitors will now see the story of nurses with the 48th Surgical Hospital who came ashore with the 11D in North Africa. Plus, many of the M3 Lee Tanks 11D soldiers used overseas were manufactured and moved to embarkation points with the help of Women's Army Corps (WACs) personnel and Rosie the Riveters.

- Women of the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion have been added to the Battle of the Bulge to VE-Day section. Letters 11D soldiers received in the spring, summer and fall of 1945—after long periods of “No Mail, Low Morale”— were delivered because of the remarkable 24/7 work effort of the 6888th.

The “Women in World War II” and “6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion” interpretations are solid examples of interpreting a more “inclusive story... through the lens” of the BRO. Neither the nurses of the 48th Surgical Hospital nor the women of the 6888th served in the Big Red One, but we can interpret these stories under our new expanded mission and vision statement because they directly contributed to the success of the Big Red One, allowing us to interpret a more inclusive military history story.

Our focus this year is on three themes: “Women in the Military and the 19th Amendment; 75th Anniversary of VE-Day; and the 50th Anniversary of 11D soldiers returning from Vietnam. Associated with the latter theme, we will host The Wall That Heals—a traveling replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington—from July 9 to 12.

Please come see us in Wheaton, and let me know what you think of our new and ongoing exhibits. We are here for you.
